INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

1. Manuscripts should be written in English, and should be accompanied by a letter of submission stating that they are original unpublished work, not submitted or to be submitted for consideration elsewhere. The copyrights in the accepted paper shall be assigned exclusively to Hitotsubashi University in accordance with Hitotsubashi Journal Copyright Policy. The editors do not accept responsibility for damage or loss of papers submitted.

2. Manuscript should have margins of at least one inch on all sides, using double-spacing throughout. Number each page. The total number of pages should not exceed 30. Please send a single PDF file of the manuscript that includes references, tables and figures as an e-mail attachment to: hjc-ed@econ.hit-u.ac.jp.

3. The first page of the manuscript should contain the following information: (i) the title; (ii) the name(s) and complete affiliation(s) (including e-mail address(es)) of the author(s); (iii) an abstract of not more than 100 words. The abstract will appear at the beginning of the article in the Journal and will be used in bibliographic information services provided by the American Economic Association ( EconLit).

4. The first page of the manuscript should also contain at least one classification code according to the Classification System for Journal Articles as used by the Journal of Economic Literature; in addition, up to five key words should be supplied.

5. Acknowledgements and information on grants received should be given in footnote on the first page.

6. Footnotes should be kept to a minimum and be numbered consecutively throughout the text with superscript in Arabic numerals. All graphs and diagrams should be referred to as figures and should be numbered consecutively in the text in Arabic numerals. Tables should be numbered consecutively in the text in Arabic numerals and typed on separate sheets.

7. Important formulae (displayed) should be numbered consecutively throughout the manuscript as (1), (2), etc. on the right-hand side of the page. Where the derivation of formulae has been abbreviated, it is of great help to referees if the full derivation can be presented on a separate sheet (not to be published).

8. The References should include only the most relevant papers. In the text, references to publications should appear as follows: “Samuelson (1950a) reported that...” or “This problem has been a subject in literature before [e.g., Samuelson (1950b, p.360)].” The author should make sure that there is a strict “one-to-one correspondence” between the names (years) in the text and those on the list. At the end of the manuscript (after any appendices), the complete references should be listed as follows:

The Hitotsubashi Journal of Economics is published twice annually by Hitotsubashi University and is open to all researchers in the field of economics. Non-faculty members as well as faculty members of the University are welcome to submit unpublished research articles for editorial consideration. Manuscripts that are closely related to those already published in the Journal or manuscripts that concern empirical, theoretical and/or historical aspects of the Japanese economy are especially welcome. Authors submitting a manuscript do so on the understanding that if it is accepted for publication, the copyrights in the submitted work, such as the right of reproduction or public transmission, including the copyrights protected under any applicable law of any foreign countries, shall be assigned exclusively to Hitotsubashi University in accordance with Hitotsubashi Journal Copyright Policy (http://www1.econ.hit-u.ac.jp/eng/about/publications/hitotsubashijournal.html). When the author(s) reproduce or republish the work elsewhere, please notify Hitotsubashi Journal Editorial Office in advance. All those considering submissions should consult Instructions to Authors printed on the inside of the back cover.

Copies are distributed to academic institutions in exchange for publications of a similar nature. Individuals may subscribe to this Journal through the following agents.
